Dear SFOF Family,

Man, what a year this has been, but through it all I have been more aware of the many blessings I receive. This year has brought us closer as family, friends and colleagues. Like with any struggle, we are and will emerge from all of this stronger than ever.

I often find myself during this time of year reflecting and this year even more so I'm grateful for the blessings of this past year. While it may be more challenging to find those blessings this season, I want to start by sharing my gratitude for my SFOF family.

I truly am humbled and grateful for the opportunity to serve you as your chair for the upcoming year. I am looking forward to the hope and fresh start this new year brings each of us.

I also want to share a moment of gratitude for each and every sponsor. Even though this past year was difficult, I am personally grateful for your continued support of our organization. Because you stuck with us, we were able to hold our first ever virtual conference, countless one on one meetings, and a very exciting in-person fall meeting. Our content and influence was as strong as it has ever been.

Specifically, thank you to: Public Trust Advisors, Federated Hermes, iTEDIUM, Mastercard, American Council of Life Insurers, Academy Securities, Ascensus, Clearwater Analytics, EVERFI, Fidelity, OpenGov, Pomerantz, LLP, Singularis Group, Visa, EnTrust Global, Development Corporation for Israel, Claimfound, Arabesque, KKR, J.P. Morgan, and Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd, LLP.

Tina and I extend our warmest wishes for a very blessed Christmas, Hannukah, and happiest of holidays. May your New Year be filled with hope and joy.

Treasurer Dennis Milligan (AR),
2021 SFOF National Chair
